snap, and the crowd was large and good natured. Good humor prevailed throughout the day.

The only unfortunate incident of the day was in the sixth race when Jockey Domingo Ferreira on Lau Lillii fouled Euradius. Although Lau Lillii crossed the line first, the race was awarded to Eu-easy winner with Jubilee second.

In the sixth race for Hawaiian breds, a half-mile dash, the purse was $50. Euradius, Frances Hobron and Lau Lillii started together.

STEAM PLOW BLOWS UP.

Tuesday morning one of the steam plows of the Wailuku Sugar Company blew up and seriously injured Oe the Japanese driver of the engine.

The cross head rod was noticed to be hot and G. A. Hansen who has charge of the plows went to supervise the work connected with putting the engine in better shape when the steam dome blew up.

Mr. Hansen and the Japanese were standing right by the side of the dome at the time it blew up but fortunately the side opposite them was the one to give way first, thus causing the force of the escaping steam to be on the opposite side from them and thereby saving the lives of both of them. Had the side next to them given way both would have been instantly killed.

The driver was struck in the head and face by pieces of iron and was scalded about the neck and was carried away in an unconscious condition.

The explosion occurred about a mile away from the Court house but was distinctly heard there and it was realized at once that one of the engines had blown up.

causing a water closet to be instal-of the Police and the Secretary Banks Pay Dividends.

Fifteen months ago the Lahaina National Bank of Lahaina opened its doors for business. The prosperity of the institution was assured from the first and this month it will pay three per cent dividends and will continue to be a dividend paying institution indefinitely.

It has not only been a financial success from the first but has been found of great convenience to the business public of Lahaina.

luku considered the parent bank of Maui has been under the same management and control since its
